Ogunquit, Maine

with Playhouse & Foster's Clambake

October 1 - 2, 2020

2 DAYS * 3 MEALS

Enjoy theater at its best and the charm of Southern Maine on this theatrical culinary escape. We will depart for Maine and head north to the village of Kennebunkport. This lovely seaside village is the quintessential Maine postcard and we will enjoy a guided tour of the town including the Bush Family Compound at Walker's Point. Afterwards, enjoy lunch on own and free time to browse the unique shops and boutiques along the small streets and harbor. Next, we will check into the Meadowmere Resort in Ogunquit, one of Maine's leading resorts. We enjoy a wine and cheese reception upon arrival and amenities such as indoor and outdoor heated pools, steam room, sauna, Roman tub room and relaxing lounge. This evening's dinner is at Jonathan's Restaurant located in the hotel, an Ogunquit institution. Afterwards, enjoy a Broadway musical at The Ogunquit Playhouse. For over 85 years the Playhouse has delighted audiences with stars from Bette Davis to William Powell and countless other celebrities. On Day 2 after breakfast enjoy a stunning drive along Maine's southern coast with its' ragged inlets, shimmering beaches and lighthouses. We will arrive in Maine's 'first town,' York, where we will visit one of the earliest English settlements in the country at The Museums of Old York. Witness and participate in 'hands-on' demonstrations of 17th Century cooking, weaving and schoolhouse lessons. Next, at nearby Foster's enjoy a traditional clambake with lobsters, clams, chowder and all the fixin's, with live and fun entertainment. On our way home we will visit the Kittery Outlets for some fantastic discount shopping.
